Dedication.

TO D. A. JANUARY, ESQ.,

President of the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company.

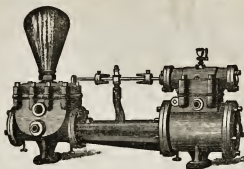

SIR:—We take the liberty of dedicating to you the Eleventh Volume of the St. Louis Directory. Your liberality in all public enterprises tending towards the growth and prosperity of our city; your indefatigable exertions in behalf of education; your success and standing as a merchant, and the high estimation in which you are held by the people of St. Louis, eminently entitle you to the small consideration here bestowed by the publisher of this work.

INTRODUCTORY.

To the inhabitants of a great city like St. Louis, no more important and interesting work, than a City Directory can be published. If the canvass be made thorough and accurate, it is a good index of the city's growth and general prosperity ; for it enumerates the churches, the banks, the school houses, the various social and business organizations, the names and occupations of the citizens, and by a comparison with the publications of previous years, shows the degree of progress that has been made. A directory, besides containing innumerable and interesting facts, is in reality an indispensable adjunct of every hotel, counting room, office and work shop, and is daily and hourly referred to for information in regard to the location of some of the units who compose the great aggregate of life within the limits of the city.

The publisher takes great pleasure in presenting the eleventh volume of his Directory to the citizens of St. Louis, feeling sure that an examination of its contents will not only show its general accuracy and completeness, but will prove that our city has taken unparalleled strides in her sure march to the position of being the first in wealth and importance in the Great West.

While the oft repeated reference made by our people to our present and prospective greatness may seem to savor somewhat of vain boasting, they are the involuntary expressions of surprise and admiration educed by uncontrovertible figures, when we compare the number of names, given in the Directory from year to year, and note the rapid increase of population, and advance in every department. The present issue of the Directory contains more names, and more business firms than any previous edition, and we point to the fact with that pride which actuates every citizen of St. Louis, when contemplating her past and present. Her march is onward, and her people are alive to every effort calculated to advance and perpetuate her greatness.

This work has been printed and bound in the city of St. Louis, at the office of the Charless Publishing Company, from which in future will be published also, directories of Louisville, New Orleans, Memphis and other southern cities. The facilities possessed by this office for executing works of this nature, and all kinds of printing, are unequalled in the west, and the attention of the public is respectfully invited to the excellence of the work executed at this establishment.

It has been the aim of the publisher to make the present Directory as perfect as possible and worthy the support of its old friends and patrons. Trusting that success in this respect has been attained, and hoping for future considerations, the work is respectfully submitted to the public.

Delivery by Carriers.

In the business portion of the city, letters and newspapers are delivered from five to seven times a day, or at 7.30 a. m., and immediately after the arrival of each mail during the day. In the outer portions of the city, two daily deliveries are made.

All those who are supplied by carriers will call for their letters at the office on Sunday.

Letters are equally as safe in the hands of carriers as if delivered from a Post Office, and are more certain to be handed to the rightful owners, who are thus saved the time and trouble of calling or sending for their correspondence, which is frequently done when there are no letters for the applicants.

Free delivery of letters by carriers at the residences of owners, may be secured by observing the following rules:

1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the Post Office and State.

2. Head letters with the writers Post Office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be directed accordingly.

3. Letters to strangers and transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked on the lower left hand corner with the word "Transient."

NORMAL SCHOOL—Located, corner 7th and Chesnut, in the 4th story of the Polytechnic Building. The Normal School was established in 1858, expressly for the purpose of supplying well qualified teachers for the lower grades, and already it has furnished a large majority of the teachers employed by the board. Probably in no instance in the country has the usefulness of a normal or training school been more clearly established than in this case. Number of seats, 150; pupils enrolled, 105; number of teachers, 5; average belonging, 95.

HIGH SCHOOL—15th street, corner Olive. Erected in 1855, at a cost of 40,000. The building is sixty-seven feet front on Olive street, and eighty-four feet deep. It has three stories and basement. The first and second stories are each fifteen and a half feet high in clear; the third story nineteen and a half feet, and the basement nine feet. The basement is occupied, in part by the furnaces, and in part by a school room and laboratory. The first and second floors each contain four rooms, situated in the corners of the building, separated by halls and stairways. The third floor is an assembly hall, sufficiently large to seat 700 persons. The building has sixteen small rooms for wardrobes and libraries. It is designed to accommodate 400 scholars, of both sexes. The lot is 150 feet front, by 106 feet deep, and valued at $35,000. This school is designed for advanced scholars of both sexes. The course of studies extends through four years, and comprises ancient and modern languages, higher mathematics, belle lettres, natural sciences, moral and mental philosophy, music, drawing, etc. The superior advantages of this school are open to all the youth of the city, both male and female, who can pass a satisfactory examination in the preparatory studies. The carefulness of the examination and the great popularity of the school have contributed to furnish an excellent class of scholars for this institution. For efficiency and exact scholarship the St. Louis high school has no superior. Number of seats, 400; number of teachers, 16; pupils enrolled, 367; average belonging, 346.

District Schools.

These are thirty-eight in number, conveniently located in the different wards of the city. The total number of pupils educated in them for the current year will be about 20,000.

Evening Schools.

Besides the day schools above mentioned, the board of directors keep open for four months in each year, a system of free evening schools. These schools are designed to afford the privileges of education to such of the youth of the city of both sexes as are necessarily engaged in some useful employment during the day, and thereby prevented from attending day schools. The attendance the present year is about two thousand pupils. The advanced pupils of this class are admitted to the O'Fallon Polytechnic Institute, (now under charge of the board), which holds a session for five months each year.

STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR AND REGULATE THE NUMBERING OF HOUSES FRONTING UPON PUBLIC STREETS.

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of St. Louis:

SECTION 1. The numbering of all houses fronting on public streets in the City of St. Louis shall be in conformity to the following rules, viz: First—The odd numbers shall apply to the north and west sides of the streets, and the even numbers shall apply to the south and east sides of the streets. Second—On all streets running in a northwardly and southwardly direction, the numbering shall commence with number one at Market street, and shall increase north and south at the rate of one hundred numbers for each block, as nearly as the varying series of streets will admit of, thus: Arsenal street, Arrow street, Chouteau avenue, Market street, Franklin avenue, Cass avenue, Spring street, Salisbury street, and their continuations east and west, shall be rectified lines of uniformity in numbering north and south. Third—On all streets running in a westwardly direction the numbering shall commence at the wharf, and shall increase going westwardly at the rate of one hundred numbers for each block, as near as the varying series of streets will admit of, thus: The wharf, Third street, Ninth street, Fourteenth street, Jefferson avenue, Grand avenue, and their continuations northwardly and southwardly, shall be rectified lines of uniformity in numbering westwardly. Fourth—The general rule shall be that one hundred numbers shall represent each block going westwardly from the wharf, and a like number for each block north and south of Market.

SEC. 2. The City Engineer shall establish all house numbers, and shall allow one number for about twenty feet of vacant ground, and he shall furnish all owners of houses with the information necessary for them in placing their numbers on their houses, and all numbering shall be done strictly in conformity with the directions of the City Engineer, who shall, when required, give a certificate of property applicable to any house.

SEC. 3. All persons owning or occupying houses are hereby required to number their houses in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance; and any person who shall number or attempt to number a house otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars for every offence.

SEC. 4. The City Engineer is hereby authorized to advertise in the usual manner for proposals, and to enter into contract with the lowest and best bidder, for the numbering of all houses in the city; and the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay for the same, payable out of the contingent fund.

SEC. 5. All ordinances and parts of ordinances, so far as they may conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

APPROVED December 18th, 1866.

The following is the ordinance amendatory of the above ordinance as passed at a meeting of the City Council:

WHEREAS, The numbering of houses fronting upon the public streets of the city of St. Louis has been commenced and prosecuted upon a uniform plan; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable that said numbering should be fully completed; therefore be it ordained by the City Council of the City of St. Louis, as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four of Ordinance No. 5,701 entitled, "An ordinance to provide for and regulate the numbering of houses fronting on public streets," is hereby so amended as to read as follows, viz:

SEC. 4. The City Engineer is hereby authorized to advertise in the usual manner for proposals, and to enter into contract with the lowest and best bidder for the numbering of all houses in this city, and the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to pay for the same, payable out of the contingent fund.

AMERICAN MERCHANTS' UNION EXPRESS CO.

This Company was organized on the 1st day of December, 1868, by combining the "American Express Company" with the "Merchants' Union Express Company."

Capital, - $18,000,000

No Express Company has ever existed in the United States with equal facilities for the transaction of business, or that is more reliable.

Connecting, as they do, with all responsible Foreign and Domestic Express Cos., with Wells, Fargo & Co., for California, and the North-western Territories, and with the Canadian Express Company, they are well prepared to accomodate the whole people.

Woodward Book Store.

503 NORTH 4TH STREET,
(Wholesale Department, 411 St. Charles St.)

To Dealers in Books and Stationery :

Your attention is invited to our large and growing facilities for supplying the city and country trade with School, Medical, Miscellaneous and Juvenile Books ; Domestic and Foreign Stationery ; Owen's and other First Class Writing Papers, as well as our frequent job lots, which we are at times enabled to sell very low to Cash purchasers.

Our stock is purchased at Cash rates, and those who buy with cash, will find it to their interest to examine our prices before purchasing, for we believe with our LARGE CASH CAPITAL, long experience, strict economy, untiring energy, and prompt attention to business, warrants us in guaranteeing entire satisfaction.

The purchaser will find at our house all the popular School Books in use in this section of the country, as well as the most complete stock of Note, Letter and Cap Papers, including the American, French and English, as well as the largest, best and cheapest stock of envelopes, embracing all sizes and qualities to be found ; a full line of Slates, Slate Pencils, Lead Pencils, Steel Pens, Blackboard Crayons, Paper Clips, Rubber Bands, Ink Stands, Drawing Paper, Pen Racks, in short all articles generally found in Book and Stationery Stores.

Teachers and School Committees will find our arrangements complete for supplying School Apparatus, including Desks and Benches, Globes, Outline Maps, Blackboard Rubbers, and all articles required in a First Class School.

Merchants, County Clerks, and all persons using Stationery and Blank Books, will find our stock as complete as possible. Having at our command the best ruler and binder in the city, and a good printing office, we are prepared to fill orders at short notice in the best manner.

Initial and Monogram embossing, with or without colors in the latest styles, at short notice.

All who give us their general orders, will save money, as we are determined to do better by our customers than any one else in the city possibly can ; we having the facilities for making this assertion good. Call and see.

Respectfully,

E. P. GRAY.

The best stock of School Books is at E. P. Gray's, 503 N. 4th st. see p. 250.
